Early Literacy Matters
State-by-State Policy Implementation Report
Explore South Dakota’s adoption and implementation of the 18 Early Literacy Fundamental Principles.
Early Literacy Policy Implementation Rubric

Comprehensive Early Literacy Policy establishes support and intensive reading interventions for all K–3 students to ensure they read on grade level by the end of 3rd grade. The policy also requires 3rd grade students to demonstrate sufficient reading skills for promotion to 4th grade. For students severely below grade level and who do not qualify for a good cause exemption, retention provides struggling readers the additional time and intensive interventions they need to catch up with their peers.

Early Literacy Policy Implementation Rubric

PURPOSE

The purpose of this document is to provide an analysis of states’ implementation of K–3 reading policies aligned to ExcelinEd’s fundamental principles of an early literacy policy. It builds on an analysis of states’ adoption of statutes and regulations establishing requirements for each component of the four fundamental principle areas, which are:

1. Supports for Teachers & Policy
2. Assessment & Parent Notification
3. Instruction & Intervention
4. Retention & Intensive Intervention

This report summarizes evidence of South Dakota’s early literacy policy implementation using an implementation rubric designed to gauge state progress toward full implementation of early literacy policies. Each of the fundamental principles is addressed in a separate table.

STATE POLICY ADOPTION REFERENCE MATERIALS

- South Dakota Department of Education, Moving Literacy Forward in South Dakota
- South Dakota Literacy Framework
Science of Reading (SOR) Training

IMPLEMENTATION LEVEL

PRINCIPLE NOT ADOPTED

The state has not adopted policy (statute or regulation) that meets the fundamental principle for this area.

EVIDENCE/GUIDANCE

Evidence of the state’s policy implementation and/or guidance in this area includes:

- South Dakota DOES NOT require K–3 teachers and administrators to participate in state-adopted science of reading training.
- South Dakota DOES offer AIM Pathways for South Dakota teachers and administrators to be trained in the science of reading. (SD Department of Education, Literacy Professional Learning; Professional Learning Decision-Making Flowchart)
  - Note: This opportunity is currently being offered free of charge through funding from the American Rescue Plan. It is unclear if South Dakota has established a plan to continue this opportunity when funding is no longer available.

CONSIDERATION(S) FOR STRENGTHENING POLICY

- South Dakota should expand policy to require all K–3 teachers and administrators to participate in state-adopted science of reading training.
- In adopting this policy, South Dakota should ensure there is an implementation plan for rollout that is clearly communicated to all educators.
IMPLEMENTATION LEVEL

PRINCIPLE NOT ADOPTED

The state has not adopted policy (statute or regulation) that meets the fundamental principle for this area.

EVIDENCE/GUIDANCE

Evidence of the state’s policy implementation and/or guidance in this area includes:

• South Dakota DOES NOT provide for literacy coaches in policy.

CONSIDERATION(S) FOR STRENGTHENING POLICY

• South Dakota should ensure that a literacy coach that is trained in the science of reading is assigned to each elementary school to provide job-embedded training and coaching to K–3 teachers.
Educator Preparation Program (EPP) Alignment

IMPLEMENTATION LEVEL
PARTIAL IMPLEMENTATION

EPP required coursework is aligned to the science of reading and includes evidence-based literacy instruction.

EVIDENCE/GUIDANCE
Evidence of the state’s policy implementation and/or guidance in this area includes:

- South Dakota DOES have standards for educator preparation programs that list the core components of scientifically based reading. However, the standards DO NOT provide detail on the components. (NCTQ, South Dakota Summary 2023)

CONSIDERATION(S) FOR STRENGTHENING POLICY

- South Dakota should expand policy to require that EPP required coursework for elementary, early childhood, and special education candidates is aligned to the science of reading and prohibits the use of course materials that include three-cueing.

- South Dakota should further ensure coursework includes evidence-based literacy instruction, how to administer reading assessments, and how to identify students with reading difficulties, such as dyslexia.
IMPLEMENTATION LEVEL

PRINCIPLE NOT ADOPTED

The state has not adopted policy (statute or regulation) that meets the fundamental principle for this area.

EVIDENCE/GUIDANCE

Evidence of the state’s policy implementation and/or guidance in this area includes:

- South Dakota DOES require licensure tests that address reading: Praxis Early Childhood Education; Praxis Elementary Education: Multiple Subjects, Reading and Language Arts subtest; Praxis Elementary Education: Content Knowledge for Teaching, Reading and Language Arts—CKT subtest. However, these licensure tests DO NOT adequately address all five core components of reading. (NCTQ, South Dakota Summary 2023; NCTQ, False Assurances: Many states’ licensure tests don’t signal whether elementary teachers understand reading instruction (Nov. 2023))

CONSIDERATION(S) FOR STRENGTHENING POLICY

- South Dakota should require elementary education candidates to pass an assessment that is aligned to the science of reading to obtain teacher licensure.

Evidence of the state’s policy implementation and/or guidance in this area includes:

• South Dakota HAS NOT approved a screener for characteristics of dyslexia.
• South Dakota HAS released a Dyslexia Handbook, which provides for evaluation considerations for a comprehensive dyslexia assessment.

CONSIDERATION(S) FOR STRENGTHENING POLICY

• South Dakota should expand policy to require schools to administer a state-approved screener for characteristics of dyslexia that assesses the following skills, as developmentally appropriate: phonological and phonemic awareness, sound-symbol recognition, alphabet knowledge, decoding, rapid naming, encoding, and oral reading fluency.
• South Dakota should require the dyslexia screener to be administered, at a minimum, to all students at the end of Kindergarten and at the beginning of 1st and 2nd grade.

EVIDENCE/GUIDANCE

Evidence of the state’s policy implementation and/or guidance in this area includes:

- South Dakota DOES NOT require the creation of individual reading plans for students identified with a reading deficiency.

CONSIDERATION(S) FOR STRENGTHENING POLICY

- In addition to establishing policy relating to universal reading screeners, South Dakota should require schools to develop and implement an individual reading plan for students who are identified as having a reading deficiency within 30 days of receiving screening results.

- Further, South Dakota should establish a process for monitoring the implementation of those plans and a timeline for notifying parents of the development of the plan.
Regularly Monitor Student Progress

IMPLEMENTATION LEVEL
PARTIAL IMPLEMENTATION

The state requires schools to monitor students’ progress within a multi-tiered system of supports (MTSS). Monitoring can take many forms (i.e., observations, screeners, assessments, and student work).

EVIDENCE/GUIDANCE

Evidence of the state’s policy implementation and/or guidance in this area includes:

- South Dakota HAS created a multi-tiered system of supports to assist students with academic learning. (SD Department of Education, Multi-Tiered Systems of Support)

CONSIDERATION(S) FOR STRENGTHENING POLICY

- South Dakota should expand policy to require schools to regularly monitor and document students’ literacy progress within the state’s multi-tiered system of supports (MTSS).
- To strengthen the state’s use of the MTSS, South Dakota should expand policy relating to universal reading screeners. South Dakota can then use data from the screeners in order to inform instruction and interventions, as needed.

CONSIDERATION(S) FOR STRENGTHENING POLICY

• South Dakota should expand policy to require districts to offer summer reading camps to rising 1st–4th grade students at risk of reading failure to remEDIATE learning loss and/or build reading skills.

• South Dakota should further require all staff at summer reading camps to be trained in the science of reading.

CONSIDERATION(S) FOR STRENGTHENING POLICY

- South Dakota should expand policy to require schools to provide read-at-home plans to parents as soon as a student is identified with a reading deficiency.
- Further, South Dakota should require strategies that are shared with parents to target students’ needs based on data and be aligned with the science of reading.

Policy should include specific good cause exemptions for promotion to 4th grade that recognize the special needs of some students with disabilities, English language learners, and students who were previously retained.

- South Dakota should further require intensive interventions to continue in 4th grade for students promoted for good cause.
